JOBS Center

The Jobs Center is here to assist you in finding employment whether you are currently taking classes or have already graduated. As you prepare for your career, stop in to meet with our staff for help with your resume or to begin your job search. Regardless of your desired location, our staff can assist in your search for employment.

Online Job Board

As a new member of the College Central Network, FTCC's online job board allows students and alumni to:

- Search exclusive job listings & set up your job agent
- Create an online resume using the resume builder
- Build, update & forward your online career portfolio to employers
- Read career-related announcements

- Check out & register to attend career events
- View hundreds of free career-related articles
- View & apply to jobs on the nation’s largest entry-level job board
