_____ an understanding and fair instructor. I would recommend _____ to starting and fellow students.

_____ is one of my favorite instructors i had during this semester, i felt that when he taught he made the class and myself learn more about business. he makes it easy in understanding business . Excellent instructor, i highly recommend him !

I enjoyed _____ classes. His style of lecturing is clear, understanding and attention grabbing. I wish he instructed some of the required advanced courses.

I think _____ has a great personality. He is sharp as a tack and a wonderful asset for FTCC team.

_____ took a complicated class that could have been quite boring and made it absolutely fascinating. He broke it down into easy to understand segments and brought in real-world, often personal examples of how a concept worked in real life. He was constantly striving to connect things with our own life experiences which made things so much easier to retain. He was always willing to go over a point numerous times if it seemed like enough of us weren't getting it. His jokes, even the corny ones, made the class time flow by quickly. His verbal sparring with certain students (every class has at least one, right?) was impressive, and I admire his patience. I'm not sure I would have ended each encounter with a classwide group giggle. I also enjoyed the brief glimpses into his family life that he used when illustrating a concept. It helped to make him a more down-to-earth and personable. Overall _____ was an excellent instructor and I truly enjoyed the class. He made it easy to get good grades because everything was so interesting.
