Mission / Purpose

The Physical Therapist Assistant Program seeks to offer affordable technical education that is contemporary and comprehensive. The program strives to prepare graduates to practice in the legal and ethical physical therapy environment.

Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives, with Any Associations and Related Measures, Targets, Reporting Findings, and Action Plans

SLO 1: Effective Communication

Physical Therapist Assistant students will demonstrate competence in written, oral, listening, and verbal communication as evaluated in literature report projects including oral, written, and interactive components in PTA 130.

Relevant Associations:

General Education/Core Curriculum Associations

- 1 Communicate effectively using the conventions of American Standard English in professional and academic environments.

Related Measures

M 1: Effective Communication

Why: Physical Therapist Assistant students will possess effective effective written, oral, and listening communication skills in order to be effective in patient care and as members of a healthcare team. What: All PTA students must be able to read literature or patient charts and demonstrate an understanding of the presented material. They must also be able to use appropriate and correct verbal and written communication to relay information to others in an interactive format. How: Students will be evaluated in PTA 130 during their oral presentation projects. This project requires students to read and critically assess a peer reviewed physical therapy literature article, and present both a written and oral report on its content. They must also answer peer and faculty questions which will demonstrate their ability to effectively listen and respond to others. A grading rubric is utilized for scoring. Who: The Program Chair will calculate the scores for the projects. When: Students will be assessed during PTA 130 which is a fall semester course during the student's first year in the program.

Source of Evidence: Presentation, either individual or group

Target:

Goal is that 95% of all students pass the oral and written project with a 90% or better pass rate.

Reporting Finding (2013-2014) - Target: Not Met

In the fall of 2013 during PTA 130, 94% (17/18) students passed the oral and written project with a 90% or better.

Reporting Finding (2012-2013) - Target: Partially Met

The oral presentations were graded based upon number of verbal English errors. These errors represent grammatical or word choice errors. Written assessment was graded on number of errors also.

Rubrix:

- 0 errors= 100
- 1 error= 95
- 2 errors = 90
- 3 errors= 85
- 4 or more errors= 80

Oral scores: 0 errors= 11/18; 1 error= 4/18; 2 errors= 0/18; 3 errors= 3/18; and 4 or more errors = 0/18

Written scores: 0 errors= 13/18; 1 error= 3/18; 2 errors= 2/18; 3 errors= 0/18; and 4 or more errors = 0/18

Results:

Oral: 15 of the 18 students had a score of 90% or better on written English assessment. This reflects a score of 83%. Goal not met.

Written: 18 of the 18 students had a score of 90% or better. This reflects a score of 100%.

SLO 2: Critical Thinking: Physical therapy intervention

When: PTA 130 course is completed during the student's first semester in the PTA Program. Who: Written research and oral presentations are assessed by the Department Chair.

Source of Evidence: Presentation, either individual or group

Target:

Ninety percent of the students will earn a 90% or better during the oral presentations which incorporate computer literacy in research and in power point presentation.

Reporting Finding (2013-2014) - Target: Met

94% of the students earned a 90% or better during the oral presentation in PTA 130, which incorporated computer literacy in research and in power point presentation.

SLO 6: Assess program content and improve licensure pass rates

PTA Program Chair will assess the quality of the Program and develop strategies to improve educational experiences and improve licensure passing rates to 90% average over the next three years.

Relevant Associations:

General Education/Core Curriculum Associations

- 2 Use critical thinking to analyze problems and make logical decisions.

Related Measures

M 6: Program Assessment and Licensure Pass Rate

Why: The average first time testing licensure pass rate for the PTA Program students at FTCC over the past three years is 91.2%. However, the licensure exam process changed effective January 2012 allowing students to take the exam prior to graduation. It is imperative to monitor this outcome to determine if this change negatively impacts the first-time pass rate of PTA students.

How: Reports from the Federation of State Boards of PT Examiners will be obtained to identify any areas of low or unsatisfactory scores for our PTA students. Pass rates can be compared to other PTA schools in North Carolina. PTA programs with significantly higher pass rates will be assessed and contacted for program organization, course content, and strategies for student success.

When: Reports are ordered in the fall semester. Assessment process will be ongoing over the next 2-3 years.

Who: Program Chair will be responsible for assessing the report data and developing strategies for improvement.

Program Chair will involve appropriate faculty responsible for didactic training in any identified areas of unsatisfactory pass rates/ scores on examination.

Source of Evidence: Service Quality

Target:

Three year average for first time pass rate will increase to 90% by 2013.

Reporting Finding (2013-2014) - Target: Not Met

The 3 year average for first time pass rate was 89% for the years 2011 (92%), 2012(93%), and 2013 (83%).

Reporting Finding (2012-2013) - Target: Met

The three year average of graduates, 2010-2012, first time pass rate of the licensure exam is 92%.

Reporting Finding (2011-2012) - Target: Met

The three-year average pass rate is now at 91.2%; meeting this goal.

The 2011 graduates had a 91.6% first time pass rate as of November 2012 and 100% overall pass rate.

Reporting Finding (2010-2011) - Target: Partially Met

The first time pass rate for the PTA class graduating in 2010 was 92%. Students used the Scorebuilders practice text to improve readiness for licensure testing. In spring 2011, the PTA 212 course was modified to include a requirement for passing a licensure practice exam. This change reflects information gathered on licensure preparation strategies from several other PTA programs with 100% first time pass rates over the past several years. These programs require passing a practice exam during the last semester. As of May 5, 2011, all second-year students in the PTA program passed a practice exam. Students will not take the actual licensure exam until after graduation thus this assessment item will be ongoing.

Details of Action Plans for This Cycle (by Established cycle, then alpha)

3 year average of first time licensure passing rate improvement

In recent years the state licensure exam has begun scheduling exam dates 4 times per calendar year. Students are able to sit for exam in April, prior to May graduation, with departmental approval or assured graduation. During the spring semester of 2014, students were required to pass a proctored practice exam prior to sitting for April examination. This change in procedure resulted in 100% passing rate of those who took the exam. For students who choose to take the exam in July, after graduation, they also take a practice licensure exam as part of coursework prior to graduation. Students who do not pass the practice examination are required to develop and present to program faculty a detailed plan of study preparation.

Established in Cycle: 2013-2014

Implementation Status: In-Progress

Priority: High

Relationships (Measure | Outcome/Objective):

Measure: Program Assessment and Licensure Pass Rate | Outcome/Objective: Assess program content and Improve licensure pass rates

Implementation Description: Implementation of action plan began in spring 2014. Program faculty will continue to assess passing rates and current action plan.

Analysis Questions and Analysis Answers

What were the strengths of your assessment process?

The assessment indicators required objective data and reflected both didactic and clinical knowledge with demonstrated hands-on performance. It has enabled me to see data of critical indicators related to licensure and academic performance over several years.

What were the weaknesses of your assessment process?

The goal written for 95% of students to achieve a 90% or better on the oral and written project did not allow for any student error. There are 18 students in the program and if one student does not achieve the target then passing rate is 94%, and the target is not met.

What was learned as a result of your assessment process?

The program continues to regard good communications skills(oral and written) to be very important to success in this profession. Students continue to need feedback and constructive criticism on their communication skills.

The first time passing rate of licensure exam has decreased for 2013 graduates. The 2 students who did not pass the licensure on their first attempt, did not pass the practice PEAT exam prior to taking the licensure exam. Program faculty have not required all students to pass the PEAT exam prior to taking the licensure exam before graduation. In April 2014, 5 students took the licensure exam prior to graduation and all 5, 100%, passed the exam.

How will what was learned impact the direction and emphasis of your academic or support unit?

As mentioned in previous statement, the program now requires students to pass the PEAT practice exam prior to scheduling examination prior to graduation. This allows strong students to take the exam while completing clinical education.

September 16, 2013

Dear Advocates of Fayetteville Technical Community College:

Fayetteville Technical Community College recently celebrated its 50th-year anniversary. In doing so, the administration, faculty, and staff of FTCC celebrated the hard work and commitment that resulted in 1981 certificates, diplomas and degrees being awarded. As we transition into the next fifty years of service, we look to the future with even more passion and enthusiasm by developing, implementing, and monitoring innovative ways to better serve our students and the business-and-industry segment of the world we serve.

The 2013-2018 Strategic Plan was developed with a more defined, focused scope, identifying key initiatives to explore, evaluate and accomplish. Initiatives will be assessed annually to respond to changes that could impact student success. We cannot put a price tag on the results of our successful efforts at Fayetteville Technical Community College, but we can enjoy the realization that through affordable, high-quality education available at FTCC, lives are made more productive, spirits and confidence levels grow, and individuals are better equipped with job skills for success in the workforce.

While there are good reasons to celebrate our past accomplishments, we must remain focused on future successes. Using the 2013-2018 Strategic Plan, we will build new relationships and strengthen existing ones, improve communications, share both individual and collective responsibility, and exhibit our care and pride toward one another in doing the tasks at hand. We will make the journey a success building on the momentum of everyone's strengths, talents, and abilities moving forward.

Sincerely,

J. Larry Keen, Ed. D.
President
