Dear [REDACTED]:

The Student Appeals Committee met on Wednesday, June 25, 2014, in Room 636B of the Horace Sisk building. The purpose of the meeting was to consider your appeal. The Committee voted to deny your appeal. Please understand it was determined (a) that the instructor correctly applied FTCC's attendance policy in his class and (b) although there were extenuating and mitigating circumstances presented by you, the committee did not feel those circumstances rose to a level that would merit recommending approval of your appeal.

After careful consideration, I have decided to reinstate you in CJC 170 1901 for the summer 2014 semester. The decision for this reinstatement will allow you to continue with your course of study.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact my office at [REDACTED]
