

Credit For Prior Learning

HOME / CAMPUS LIFE / ACADEMIC RESOURCES / CREDIT FOR PRIOR LEARNING

Credit For Prior Learning

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) may be awarded if a student has learning experience through military service, fire certifications, industrial and corporate training programs, apprenticeship programs, or successful completion of standardized exams.

The maximum CPL credit applicable toward graduation is 75% of the degree, diploma, or certificate. CPL credit may also be earned by completing a Portfolio.

Transfer Credit Programs

- Continuing Education
- Fire Certifications
- Military Training

Credit For Exams, Schools & Apprenticeships

- Advanced Placement (AP) Exams
- Career & Technical Education (CTE) Exams
- CLEP Exams (Computerized)
- CLEP Exams (Written)
- Defense Language Proficiency Test (DLPT)
- DSST (Former DANTE Exam)
- Excelsior Exams
- Industry Standard Certifications
- International Baccalaureate (IB) Credit
- JFK Special Warfare Center & School
- Military Service Schools
- NC Apprenticeship (NCDOL) Programs