CONSENT FOR RELEASE OF STUDENT INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law that protects the confidential nature students' educational records. (Educational records are records such as academic records, attendance records, disciplinary records, and financial records.) FERPA requires Fayetteville Technical Community College to protect students' educational records from disclosure, even to one's parents, except in some limited circumstances defined by the federal law. However, a student may authorize the release of their own educational records by completing this form. (Complete information on FERPA rights can be found in the FTCC Student Handbook.)

In accordance with the Federal Education Rights and Privacy Act the undersigned authorizes Fayetteville Technical Community College to release my confidential educational records to the individuals named below.
